

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONTACT: Lil Swanson

Communications Director

(215) 576-3954

lswanson@abingtonfriends.net

January 7, 2016

KING'S LEGACY TO BE CELEBRATED
WITH 17 SERVICE PROJECTS AT AFS

WHO: More than 450 people are expected to participate in Martin Luther King "Day of Service" projects as Abington Friends School will once again become a major hub in eastern Montgomery County for those volunteering to do good works. The public is invited to participate in the service projects. All ages are welcome.

WHEN: Monday, January 18, 2016

9 a.m. — Registration and brief program at Abington Friends Meetinghouse, 520 Meetinghouse Road, Jenkintown.

10 a.m.-noon — Students, parents and members of the public will volunteer in a variety of service projects on the AFS campus to help the needy.

WHERE: Abington Friends School, 575 Washington Lane, Jenkintown, PA 19046

Here is a partial list of the projects:

- Hat and Scarf-making for Mitzvah Circle
- Meal-making for Aid for Friends
- Blanket-making for Mitzvah Circle
- Jenkintown Creek Buffer Cleanup (with Tookany/Tacony-Frankford Watershed)
- Soup-making for the Breathing Room Foundation
- Bread-Baking for Face to Face
- Craft and Activity Bag Assembly for St. Christopher's Hospital
- Birdhouse and Bird-feeder Building
- Help create a library
- Cookie-Decorating for Whosoever Gospel Mission
- Winter Care Kit and Homelessness Workshop for Whosoever Gospel Mission

- Off-Campus Activities at Rydal Park Retirement Community, Girard College, A Step Up Academy and projects that can be completed at home.

- New-to-You Clothing Sale, supporting the Women's Center of Montgomery County
The sale will be on Saturday, Jan.16, 9 a.m. to noon, at Abington Friends Lower School.
All items are priced under $3.

For more information or to register to volunteer, visit abingtonfriends.com.

Abington Friends School is a Quaker School serving families of children from age 3 to 12th grade. The school's campus has continuously occupied the same grounds in Jenkintown, PA, since 1697.